ABOUT THE COLLEGE

Eminent Islamic scholar, politician, educationist and author of international repute Dr. Rafiq Zakaria established Marathwada College of Education way back in 1970. He observed that Maharashtra state and particularly in Marathwada region there was not a single B.Ed. college to cater the requirement of Urdu medium schools and therefore he established Marathwada College of Education in the city of Aurangabad. The College at present has an intake of 300 students. Apart from Urdu, the College also imparts training in Marathi and English languages and is one of the largest colleges of Education in Marathwada region. Right from its inception the college strives for excellence and quality education and the students consistently achieve academic excellence in the form of obtaining the highest number of gold medals and merit in the University examinations. The academic excellence of the College has been acknowledged and endorsed by NAAC in the form of A+ Grade in 2004 and again re-credited as 'A' Grade in 2016.
