Objectives of RDC:

- To create conducive environment for research
- To develop research culture among students, research scholars and faculty
- To provide guidance for undertaking research projects
- To create awareness and opportunities in research, innovation and development among the faculty and future teachers
- To promote interdisciplinary and multidisciplinary research
- To identify thrust areas of research
- To form cluster groups/frontline teams/consortia of researchers
- To act as a liaison and establish a special purpose vehicle to promote research and innovation
- To engage superannuated /active experts /scientist/community talents.
- To develop Institutional Research Information system
- To make effective use of ICT for preparing the database of in-house experts to provide industry consultancy and services.
- To monitor and oversee research progress , manage and optimize research resource and conduct timely review
- To have coordination among other cells/centres
- To create awareness about filing patents and IPR